George Washington Heard This!

Sunday, April 2, 2017 @ 4:00 PM

Alaska Music & Sound

Featured Artists: Laura Koenig, baroque flute
Dawn Lindsay, violin
Linda Ottum, cello
Juliana Osinchuk, harpsichord

This soir e will introduce a "new world" of baroque and classical repertoire written by native born and newly immigrated composers. The program includes works by William Billings, Benjamin Carr, John Christopher Moller, and Francis Hopkinson, a personal friend of George Washington (and whose signature is on the Declaration of Independence)...and Yankee Doodle, of course! Join us afterward for a historically informed reception. Seating is limited.

Young Alaskan Artist Award

Since 2000, the Anchorage Festival of Music has held an annual competition to select a worthy performing Alaskan artist entering the professional field. Winners are presented in a debut recital in addition to receiving a substantial monetary award. Past winners continue to enjoy national and international careers as performers and music educators.

The competition is open to any Alaskan who is at least a college freshman pursuing a college degree or program in music at an accredited institution. Applications will be available soon on our website. More information forthcoming on the AFM Facebook page and website.
