Ted Stevens Young Alaskan Artist Award

Since 1999, the Anchorage Festival of Music has held an annual competition to recognize a performing Alaskan music artist entering the professional field. To mark the 20th anniversary of the program and in recognition of the many connections to Senator Stevens, the award was renamed the Ted Stevens Young Alaskan Artist Award in July 2018.

The competition is open to any Alaskan, age 30 or under, who is currently pursuing or has achieved a bachelor's degree in music at an accredited institution. Winners are presented in a full-length solo recital and receive a cash award. Awardees continue to enjoy national and international careers as performers and music educators.

Applications for the 2023 Ted Stevens Young Alaskan Artist Award will be accepted starting in January.

Download the 2023 Young Alaskan Artist Award application at:
www.anchoragefestivalofmusic.org.
Application deadline is May 31, 2023.

Born and raised in Petersburg, Alaska, Stephanie Pfundt holds performance degrees from Pacific Lutheran University and Boston University. She is a District and Encouragement Award winner of Metropolitan Opera's Laffont Competition. Her operatic roles include Queen of the Night (Die Zauberflöte), 2nd Handmaid (Dido and Aeneas), Johanna (Sweeney Todd), and Barbarina (Le nozze di Figaro).

This solo recital will showcase Stephanie's stunning musicality in songs by Richard Strauss, Edvard Grieg, Lili Boulanger, Tom Cipullo, and Rachmaninoff. Stephanie will also perform her own Alaska-inspired composition, Ocean Airs. Stephanie will be joined by pianist Janet Carr-Campbell. A reception will follow the concert. Livestream option is available.

Musical prodigies of the 18th century

While Mozart's early musical ability is legendary, this concert will open your ears to other incredible musical prodigies. Discover music from the teenaged Handel, who had to hide his skills from a disapproving father, to violinist/composer Pasquale Bini whose virtuosity allegedly caused an older colleague to die from inadequacy. Performance time: 90 minutes with short intermission.

Featuring: Jonathan Salzedo, Harpsichord
Laura Koenig, Baroque Flute
Dawn Lindsay, Violin
John Lutterman, Cello
Linda Ottum, Cello

A baroque comedic operetta

Cendrillon (1759) by Jean-Louis Laruelle is the earliest musical setting of the Cinderella story with its beloved fairy godmother, magic wand, and glass slippers. AFM is excited to partner with UAA to stage this funny, yet heartfelt one-act operetta. All songs and dialog will be performed in English with period baroque instruments, including a full-sized harpsichord, on stage. Performance time: 50 minutes with no intermission.
